SUMMER READING ONE-PAGER PROJECT for 6th, 7th and 8th graders

This is due in English class on Friday, August 14, 2026. This project will count as a QUIZ grade! A one-pager is a collage of illustrations and written analyses on one page that displays a nicely illustrated and detailed description of a subject or piece of literature.

Directions: After reading your chosen book, you will complete a one-pager using all of the following requirements. The one-pager will be graded using the rubric below.

Category	4 - Excellent	3 - Good	2 - Fair	1 - Needs Improvement
Grammar, Spelling, and Mechanics	No errors in grammar, spelling, or punctuation; writing is clear and polished.	Few minor errors that do not distract from meaning.	Several errors that sometimes interfere with understanding.	Many errors that make the text difficult to understand.
Completion of All Criteria	All required elements are included and fully developed with great detail.	Most required elements are included and mostly complete.	Some required elements are missing or incomplete.	Many required elements are missing or incomplete.
Understanding of the Text	Demonstrates a deep understanding of the text through accurate and insightful content.	Shows a good understanding with mostly accurate content.	Shows some understanding but with some inaccuracies.	Shows little or no understanding of the text.

A Simple Trick for Success with One-Pagers | Cult of Pedagogy (SEE EXAMPLES)
Non-Fiction One-Pager CHECKLIST  It MUST include the following:

● Use a BLACK PEN to write your text. You may first write in a pencil, but go over the text with a BLACK PEN. Use unlined white paper.
● The title and author of the book
● One interesting quote from the book and the page number where it can be found.
● 5 facts you learned from reading the book, written in COMPLETE sentences!.
● A brief (1-3 sentences) summary of the book. This tells what the book is about.
● The front must be covered in artwork that conveys meaning. It could be a scene, image from the story, symbols, etc. Get creative! The entire front of the page should be completely covered and colored! Color pencils and crayons work best. See the link for examples!